

Girl Scout World Thinking Day Party: connect, share and celebrate our differences

TREE OF FRIENDS 2017

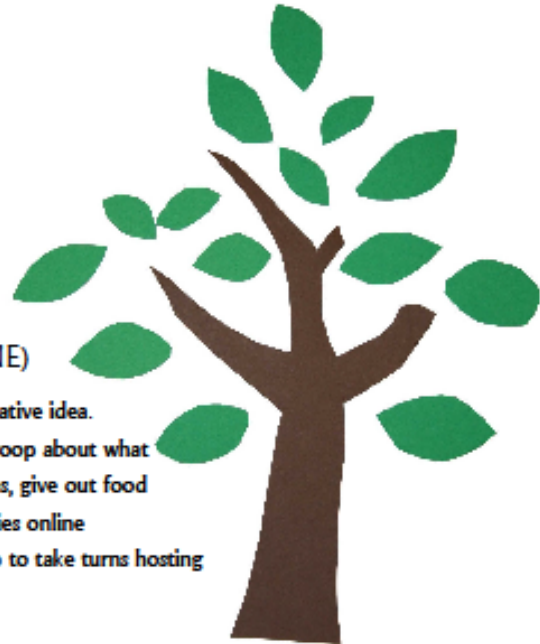

TROOP COUNTRY/BOOTH REGISTRATION AND/OR TROOP TRAVELERS (CHOOSE ONE)

Host a country! Plan your space with a table, mat or other creative idea. Research your country and decide what's important to your troop about what you learned and share it at the event. Teach a song, play games, give out food samples or think of something new! Look up WAGGG countries online at www.wages.org/en/our-world/. You can split your troop up to take turns hosting your country and visiting the other ones!

OR, choose to come to the event as Travelers. We need both hosts and travelers to make a great celebration! All UC Girl Scouts are invited to attend and enjoy the festivities. Feel free to come dressed in another country's apparel too.

Deadline to register is February 8, 2017.

Girl Scout World Thinking Day is a chance for Girl Guide and Girl Scouts to remember their global community and connect with each other. With ten million Girl Guides and Girl Scouts from 146 countries, the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) is the largest voluntary movement dedicated to girls and young women in the world (for 100 years).
